

Application Form for a Senior Leader with the OCCA.

We are delighted to receive applications throughout the Summer of 2024. There is no closing date, as we will consider applications as they are received.

Name

One Line Bio

Can you give us a brief description of yourself as it might appear on an event leaflet.

What does Jesus mean to you?

Please tell us about your faith. Imagine that your reader may not believe in Jesus themselves.

Tell us more about why you are applying for this role.

We want to help people follow their God-given calling, which usually includes both our motivations and passions. This is a chance to explain how your vocation fits with this role.

Tell us more about your professional suitability for this role.

We want to serve God with the best we can bring. This is a chance to explain your areas of expertise and experience and how they will enable you to fulfil this role well.

Tell us about any issues with the role.

Only rarely will a person's skills exactly align with a job description. Please explain any areas where you do not have the relevant skills and/or experience and what training and support you might need to succeed in the role.

Tell us about anything else you may bring to OCCA.

Team members often bring skills and life experience that enrich the life and ministry of OCCA. Whilst much of the role is defined already, we are always excited to hear what else a new employee might bring.

Tell us more about yourself.

We want OCCA to a place where we all thrive. Please tell us more about yourself, what you will bring to the team. Tell us how we can help you to serve in joy.

We are an equal opportunities employer and are aware that life brings complexities that our team will need to bear in mind. This is a chance to explain if you will need any additional practical or pastoral support to thrive in this role.
